TASTING

Eye :

The cuvée presents a bright and fairly dense aspect. The robe displays a pale golden-yellow color with shiny golden reflections.

Nose :

At first, the bouquet is rich and indulgent, with toasted notes, grilled almonds, coconut, quince, jasmine flowers, and linden blossom. Upon aeration, it reveals clay-smoked aromas, wild berries, ginger, cardamom, honey, and warm mirabelle plums, accented by hints of pear and sweet spices.

Mouth :

The cuvée is rich, with creamy bubbles. It reveals a pulpy, enveloping fruit texture, supported by orange-toned and white-fruit acidity. A clay-driven structure provides a tactile presence focused mid-palate, helping to quickly integrate the oak elements. This fusion imparts a certain vinosity while balancing the cuvée's fruit richness and aligning with the ripe character of the vintage.

Pairings :

This cuvée pairs beautifully with a five-spice-crusted akami tuna tataki, beetroot-marinated salmon gravlax with guacamole and seared prawns, or pan-seared duck foie gras escalopes with caramelized apples.
